AFMAN 23-110, Vol 2, Part 2, Chap 9, is supplemented as follows:

SUMMARY OF REVISIONS

This revision supplements paragraphs 9.72.1, 9.106, and Table 9C2.1. It changes the Stock Control Section Offline Requisitions numbers from 9600-9900 to 9800-9899. A bar (|) indicates new or changed material since the previous version.

9.14.2. Instead of the Stock Control Section, the Customer Service Section will manage the supply portion of the Defense Reutilization and Marketing Office (DRMO) program for withdrawals and issues.

9.14.2.1. The Customer Service Section will provide DRMO a letter listing the individuals authorized to authenticate requisitions for direct removal of assets from the DRMO.

9.14.4.2.3.1. The customer will return to Customer Service Section to process the receipt paperwork.

9.14.6. Base Supply will not issue controlled DD Forms 1348-1A with the stock number and nomenclature blank to the customers for DRMO withdrawals.

9.14.7. The XR1 file can be accessed using the worldwide web at (<http://www.drms.dla.mil>).

9.30.1. Calendars will be procured through General Services Administration (GSA) using IMPAC procedures.

9.42.2. Special awards are not stocked by Base Supply; instead units will use IMPAC procedures.

9.72.1. The Priority Requirements Action List (R01) is being used in lieu of the Priority Monitor Report (D18). The R01 is processed weekly.

9.106. A manual file will be used until the Standard Procurement System (SPS) is fully implemented.

9.110.2. Customer Service Section will load the descriptive data in the SPS database. Requisitions are produced by the SBSS and transported by SIFS to queue pending automatic interfacing by SPS. DD

Forms 1348-6 are forwarded to Base Contracting only when sufficient data cannot be loaded in SPS for specific items such as typewriters, etc.

9.124. Stock Control will process all tracer action required (TAR) documentation.

9.140.3.3. (Added) Shipping destination record is not required.

9.144.1. Stock Control and Receiving Sections will maintain a ROD suspense file for the RODs applicable to their section.

9B1.1. The Repair Cycle Support Element (RCSE) will be responsible for the local manufacture program.
